Canadian Partnership for Responsible Gambling. (2010).

In 2004, a group of non-profit organizations, gaming providers, and gaming regulators came together to form the Canadian Partnership for Responsible Gambling (CPRG). The first priority of the Partnership was the assembly of reliable and accurate gambling-related information across the country. The result was the Canadian Gambling Digest, an annual report of statistics related to gambling in each of the ten Canadian provinces. This edition of the Digest, is the seventh report released to date.
